

Job Posting – Video Editor

Keewatinook Okimakanak Research Institute

Term Position: 10 weeks

Key Responsibilities

Managing video content including filming, editing & posting. Working with video archives, web streaming and video equipment to provide easy to view videos to First Nations audiences in Northern Ontario. Assisting the technical team with troubleshooting and maintaining websites. Assisting the KORl team with other duties as required. Funded in part by HRSDC.

Qualifications

1. Must be enrolled in high school or secondary & intend to return to school full-time.
2. Experience working with Video Editing Suites
3. Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
4. Ability to work under minimal supervision.
5. Ability to learn and contribute to an evolving digital office environment including the use of video conferencing, IP Telephones and posting files & news online.
6. Ability to speak Oji-Cree, Ojibway or Cree is an asset.

Please submit a resume and covering letter to:

Brian Walmark

Director of Keewatinook Okimakanak Research Institute

216 S. Algoma St. Thunder Bay, Ontario P7B 3C2

Email: brian.walmark@knet.ca

Deadline:

May 16, 2008

For information about KO and the Research Institute, visit www.knet.ca & media.knet.ca